

and

Present

DC Cool – Hidden Gems of Washington, DC

We bet you haven't seen this!

2 Nights – 3 Days!

Day One – Thursday 2016

	The National Geographic Museum. As the home of National Geographic headquarters, Washington, DC, offers you the world and all that's in it, from family-friendly exhibits, to dynamic speakers, engaging concerts and award-winning films and our retail store. We invite you to experience the adventure!
	Sheraton Tyson's Corner. Check in to our local luxury hotel with included baggage handling. Sheraton Tysons Hotel is a newly renovated, upscale hotel located just 10 minutes from Dulles Airport (IAD) and 20 minutes outside Washington, DC. The hotel totals 449 guest rooms, all classically furnished with a stylish sitting area and the plush Sheraton Sweet Sleeper® Bed with white bedding and signature white duvet ensemble. Always plenty of free motor coach parking! Ample banquet space for your groups private dining needs, an indoor pool all conveniently located near the Dulles Expressway and The Capital Beltway.
	Enjoy dinner on your own at the Tyson's Corner Center and Mall, "Where the stores are". This collection of retail stores provides a seemingly endless shopping opportunity and over 50 eateries and restaurants to choose from!

Day Two – Friday

	Breakfast included at your Sheraton Tyson's Corner hotel.
	Tour the Hillwood Estate Museum and Gardens. Nestled in the hills of northwest Washington, DC, Hillwood is an oasis only minutes from downtown. The exquisitely maintained mansion and more than 25 acres of gardens is home to the largest collection of Russian imperial art outside of Russia.
	Lunch will be at the exciting Pinstripes; Bistro, Bowling &amp; Bocce. You'll enjoy fine dining and fun games at this unique bistro located in downtown Georgetown!

	After lunch, indulge in the shopping possibilities available in Georgetown!
	Partake in gorgeous views of the Washington Monuments with this unique cruise provided by the Potomac Riverboat Company. Depart from Georgetown and enjoy the sites along the Potomac to end your tour in historic Alexandria, Virginia.
	Relax and have dinner on your own in Old Town Alexandria, Virginia. This beautifully preserved downtown district with home to George Washington and features lovely cobblestone streets, live music, and a multitude of shopping opportunities.

Day Three – Saturday

	Enjoy Breakfast at your local Sheraton Tyson's Corner Hotel.
	The Mansion on O Street &amp; O Street Museum are conveniently located in historic Dupont Circle, within walking distance to Embassy Row, Georgetown and The Philips Collection. With over 100 rooms and 70 secret doors, it is one of the most unique venues in the world — offering world-class cuisine and an inspiring environment. Named a Washingtonian Magazine Hidden Gem and one of the top five venues to explore in the world by Smithsonian Magazine — The Mansion has been featured in numerous television shows, books, and magazines including the Travel Channel's "Mega Mansions", WETA's Breakfast in Washington, and National Geographic's Traveler Magazine.
	Tour the Anderson House. This unique museum, library and headquarters for the Society of the Cincinnati is a non-profit organization whose goal is to promote education and foster appreciation for the American achievement of independence.
	Meet our tour guide for a fun tour of Washington DC neighborhoods and the surrounding areas. See many neighborhoods, each with unique architecture and culture including Kalorama, Chinatown, Penn Quarter, Howard University, Adams Morgan, Shaw and more! Lunch on your own as you tour Georgetown University campus, continuing on to see such sites as the Lincoln Theatre, the African American Civil War Memorial and Museum as well as the Thurgood Marshall Center and much more!