UNLIKE any other event in Washington—and perhaps in the world—The Embassy Open Houses presented by Cultural Tourism DC and the European Delegation to the US will open embassy doors on a grand scale. In a single day visitors will be able to experience countries and cultures of the world.

Day One, Friday, May 2015

The first day begins with visits to a unique mansion home; each example presenting their own arts, culture, and personality: (1) Hillwood Museum and Estate housing the largest collection of the Russian Czars outside of Russia; (2) Dumbarton Oaks Mansion/Museum and Gardens. This Georgetown mansion is a museum and library for Byzantine studies and botanical history; (3) Tudor Place, the Georgetown mansion and National History Landmark was the home of Martha Custis Peter, granddaughter of Martha Washington; (4) The Anderson House was the winter residence of Larz Anderson, an American diplomat to Japan, and his wife; (5) Christian Heurich Mansion. This 1894 mansion is an excellent representation of the merchant class homes of the late 19th-century and features a magnificent Victorian parlor; (6) Gunston Hall, the plantation and home of George Mason, author of the Bill of Rights, Statesman and Political thinker; (7) Carlyle House and Historic Park. This is the home of John Carlyle, a Scottish merchant who was one of Alexandria’s founders; or (8) The Kreeger Museum showcasing the art collection of Carmen and the late David Kreeger. Welcome dinner included. Check in to our local hotel. D

Day Two, Saturday, May 2015

After breakfast at the hotel depart and enjoy a Private Group Tour of an Embassy before they open to the public. Welcome to the Embassy Open Houses, featuring the International Embassies in Washington, DC! Your Embassy Tour includes our experienced professional Guide to help navigate and add a unique informative perspective to the places and embassies you visit today. Your welcome includes a Souvenir Passport to stamp at every embassy you visit. Dinner this evening will be at an exceptional location! B,D

Day Three, Sunday, May 2015

Enjoy breakfast before checking out. This morning, you depart for a tour of the National Geographic Museum. Next, you’ll have free time to visit your choice of the museums of the Smithsonian Institution on the National Mall. Museums you might want to consider keeping with your international themed tour are: The Freer Gallery of Art, the Arthur M. Sackler Gallery of Art, and the National Gallery of Art. Enjoy lunch on your own while touring before we depart for home. B
